It has been decided not to construct an archive building in the Judiciary building grounds, nor will an archive building materialize anywhere in this Territory under present conditions. It is considered unwise to lay out money for such a purpose and the matter will be dropped in the hope that the Territory will some day have a building in which each department will have its own fireproof vaults.

Hawaii Chapter No. 1, O. E. S., Hilo gave a most enjoyable banquet to its members Wednesday evening. The occasion was the initiation of Mrs. Katherine Forbes, of Kukuthaele, and Miss Lilinoe Hapai, Mrs. Forbes will be remembered by old friends here as having a charming voice, which has lost none of its sweetness and beauty lost none of its sweetness and beauty of expression by her long stay on the other side of the big island. She won those present by her perfect rendering of several delightful solos.
